

Veteran's Day Essay Expectations and Timeline

 Final Draft due Monday. November 4

Essays are to be handwritten or typed on the front side of loose leaf paper in the student's neatest handwriting (print or cursive). Students do not have to skip lines on the final draft, and at this point in the year, students can choose to write in pencil or in ink. Essays should be 1-2 pages in length.

Veteran's Day essays should include the following:

Introduction/Lead	_____
History of Vet. Day	_____
What Vet. Day means to you	_____
Conclusion	_____

Recommended Timeline

_____	Oct. 21 - 25 -- Plan (Brainstorming)
_____	Oct. 28 (Monday) -- Draft (skipping lines)
_____	Oct. 29 (Tuesday) -- Revise
_____	Oct. 30 (Wednesday) -- Edit
_____	Oct. 31 (Thursday) -- Evaluate draft (students take final look for any possible changes)
_____	Nov. 1 (Friday) - Publish (students write final draft...neatly)
_____	Nov. 4 (Monday) -- Final Drafts DUE